Combine the following sentences using "so ⋯ that."

1. The story was funny. I was in convulsion.
→ The story was so funny that I was in convulsion.

2. The pizza was delicious. We ate all of it.
→

3. I was surprised. I uttered no word.
→

4. He was excited. He hit off a piece of music for me.
→

5. We were all tired. We went straight to bed.
→

6. I couldn't sleep because I was scared.
→

7. Since the film was sad, I cried.
→

8. As the shirts were cheap, I bought three.
→